Political Notes.

Col. Breckenridge was defeated for congress in the Lexington, Ky., district by about 300 votes.

A. B. Kerr passed through here on his way home to Flatonia Sunday, and announced that he had in his possession his certificate of election as Senator.

Cuero is to hold a special election to elect a mayor in place of Mayor Summers who was elected County Judge.

A gentleman who is usually a home keeping man, but who was induced to enter a race for a minor office early in the campaign, was giving his experience outside of the meeting the other day. He said: "No, I shall never run for office again—not if I know it. For three weeks after I took the stump I did not see my family, and during my absence at that time a fellow who was shipping watermelons for me, pocketed the returns on four carloads and skipped the country; a tramp rode away on one of my best horses; my wife invested $200 in bicycles; my youngest daughter ran away and married a fellow for me to support and all of our mutual relatives came to congratulate my wife on the honor which had been conferred upon me, and, incidentally, to spend the summer. Those three weeks cost me in round numbers $4000, to say nothing of the son-in-law who threatens to be permanent, and the office for which I was striving is worth $600 a year. I won't be elected, however, and I'm—glad of it! But this has been a campaign of education for me, for in it I have learned just how much a fool I really was!"—Ex.

Probably Settled.

The Senatorial question is probably settled. The matter was in much doubt for some time and occasioned the following report to be sent to the daily press:

Weimar, Texas, Nov. 13.—It has been published in the newspapers, and fully believed that A. B. Kerr, of Fayette county, the democratic nominee for the State Senate from the senatorial district composed of the counties of Fayette, Lavaca and Colorado, was elected. But it turns out from the face of the returns that his Republican opponent, R. G. Seydler, of Lavaca county, was elected by twenty-seven votes. Mr. Kerr is taking steps toward contesting the election on account of the irregularity of the Eagle Lake box, of this (Colorado) county.

The county commissioner's court had appointed T. W. Davis to be presiding officer at that box, but failing to serve himself, Mr. Davis appointed a Mr. Strickland, who served under the appointment of Davis as presiding officer, and the officers of the election thus acting made no mention of this in their returns. Some lawyers have expressed an opinion that on account of this irregularity that the Eagle Lake box could be thrown out, which would elect Kerr to the Senate and W. C. Crebbs (Dem.) to the State House of Representatives over his Republican opponent, R. L. Smith, (colored.) Mr. Crebbs also speaks of contesting.

Throwing out the Eagle Lake box would affect the election of no other candidates but Kerr and Crebbs, except the justice of the peace, constable and county commissioner at Eagle Lake, who were candidates for re-election and would, by law, hold over."

Sunday Mr. Seydler received a telegram announcing his defeat by five votes. This probably settles the matter.

A Big Crash.

Saturday, J. Rosenfield & Co., and Marx & Blum two of the largest whole sale houses in Galveston, went to the wall. The first named failed for $125,000, the latter for $513,636. They were supposed to be two of the solidest firms in Texas and their down fall will no doubt carry other firms with them and will create universal alarm and uneasiness in the financial world. They attribute their failure to bad collections, the short crop of cotton and the agitation of the money question.

Mrs. Colston, of Cuero, came up Saturday to see home folks.

This office has printed wedding invitations for the marriage, Nov. 19th, of Emil Morgenroth to Miss Hulda Discher, at the residence of the bride's parents.

E. F. Luck, of Flatonia, is tending bar at the Aransas Pass saloon. He has rented a house from Dr. Edison on East Main street.

HARD LINES.

Sheriff Resse came up and notified all the saloons here to close up hereafter on Sunday. There was some little kicking at first, but the saloon men took it good naturedly and obeyed the request. There was no possible chance of securing a drink last Sunday, and it went pretty hard with a few of our citizens who were not prepared for the new departure. The action of the sheriff was condemned by a few, but the majority acquiesce to the decision, and are willing to abide by it.—Weimar Mercury.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by the Shiner Drug Co.
